Description
When creating a new document the icon is difficult to locate in the repository. This being a rather common type of object to create. The icon is under Media. The media icon looks like a movie so user does not think to go under this category. The "most used" category is empty at the beginning. Another general issue is that objects in "most used" tend to move which makes difficult to locate objects. Possible solutions: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Add "Document" object type under "General" as well as Media- Create a "Stared" category showing preferred object types in a band on top of the current tab - not as a new tab as it increases the number of click.
