Description
it's possible to share Content Objects with de-activated users and to send them a personal message.
It would be better if the non active users were not displayed in the user list.

also they should not be displayed in any lists

- you should not be able to add non-active users to courses

- you should not be able to publish for non-active users anywhere

certainly since users cannot be deleted in chamilo it is important that you can at least hide them
