Description

On the latest stable version, the block New announcements gives problems:

- or it isn't possible to add it
- or you can add it, but when going back to the home page, the user gets a fatal error (see screen shot)

History

#1 - 10/07/2012 16:41 - Anthony Hurst

- Status changed from New to Needs more info
- Assignee set to dominique de guchtenaere
- Target version changed from Backlog (default) to LCMS 3.1

I cannot reproduce this issue. Would you mind providing the url that caused it?

#2 - 11/07/2012 10:25 - dominique de guchtenaere

- Status changed from Needs more info to Bug resolved
- Assignee changed from dominique de guchtenaere to Anthony Hurst tested it with the latest stable code (updated 5' ago): problem seems resolved.

#3 - 16/07/2012 14:03 - Koen Favere

- Status changed from Bug resolved to New problem is occuring on lcms.chamilo.org (installation of the release zip) you can reproduce it there.

#4 - 09/09/2012 23:13 - Parcifal Aertssen

- Status changed from New to Bug resolved
- Assignee changed from Anthony Hurst to Koen Favere

This was an issue on the lili release, because the announcement tool package (`weblcms/tool/announcement`) was one of the packages that was missing from this release. Copying this package and running the installer again solves this issue.
