Description

the chechbox (for selecting removal/visibility change ...) seems to be misplaced in the announcement list. It is currently located net to the action icons (delele, move, info ...), instead of being at the left side of the announcement.

checkbox in screenshot is green with a white X (and a tooltip 'input.pid' right aobve it) it seems like this is meant to be, however the checkbox is not clearly visible (or recognisable as such) in this location also: (likely browser/platfom-dependent) the checkbox is not aligned with the icons, further adding to the impression of a wrong location
