Description

Hi,
in the Admin > User list > Advanced search mysql wildcards characters % and _ are not escaped (like it is in the User tool of a course)

For example, if we search username "ext_" in the form, we have username "exterieur" , because _ is a SQL wildcard.

user_list: Escape SQL wildcards in simple search

The "keyword" parameter was missing a ::escape_sql_wildcards call, to filter it correctly, like the other parameters.

Maybe is better to use "*" as a wildcard instead of "_". The "_" character can be use in the username, so it can mess the search if you're looking for a user that has an username like "julio_".

I don't know which character is better known as a wildcard for non tech users ...

#4 - 02/10/2013 13:54 - Hubert Borderiou

I guess we can have no wildcard for the moment.

Diego, you cannot provide a fix and mark the issue as "resolved" all by yourself (that's our quality procedure). Someone else has to review the effectiveness of your fix.
