Does this happen using Chrome? If so, could you try with another browser and confirm it occurs there too?

#2 - 14/09/2014 11:54 - Olivier CORRE

Happens in Firefox and Safari. Haven't tried Chrome. Could it just be a display problem in /main/forum/viewforum.php ?

- Status changed from New to Assigned

- Assignee set to Yoselyn Castillo

Hi Yoselyn,
Could you take a look?

#4 - 16/09/2014 23:08 - Yoselyn Castillo

Trying this..

#5 - 19/09/2014 03:52 - Yoselyn Castillo

I could not reproduce. Maybe if you could explain your steps or settings..

#6 - 19/09/2014 04:04 - Olivier CORRE

Thanks for your answer.

I created the forum threads from within a group (/main/group/group_space.php) I created, not in the forum tool. In the forum tool, this bug doesn't seem to appear when creating a new thread.

I tried with a group i filled with students and also in an empty group. The result was the same : double posts.

#7 - 30/09/2014 07:43 - Yoselyn Castillo

- % Done changed from 0 to 70

It was missing a group condition in sql statement.

fix was sent to
<https://github.com/chamilo/chamilo-lms/pull/374>
Please, Try it from there.

#8 - 30/09/2014 08:15 - Olivier CORRE

Confirmed fixed.

#9 - 30/09/2014 09:53 - Olivier CORRE

Some old forum threads seem to disappear though. They become invisible without being deleted.

#10 - 12/10/2014 04:26 - Yannick Warnier

- Category set to Forum

We have had a similar issue with forums disappearing when we added the condition around sessions (see #7264). I believe there is no real solution to that (other than going into the database and fixing the threads and forums manually).

I'll put a note in the changelog about that.
