Description

When achieving a certificate or skill, the gradebook code should send (optionally) an e-mail to the student congratulating him, with the certificate attached.

This requires a new parameter at the gradebook_category level to decide whether to send an e-mail or not. This parameter should be "on" by default (following many users' feedback).

The text in the e-mail should be something like:

```
Congratulations {{_u.firstname}}!
```

```
You have just achieved the requirements to complete {{evaluation.title}} from course {{_c.title}}.
```

```
{% if certificate.enabled %}
```

```
Your certificate is attached.
```

```
{% if certificate.public %}
```

```
This certificate is also available online at this address: {{ certificate.link }}
```

```
Feel free to give this link around.
```

```
{% endif %}
```

```
{% endif %}
```

```
{% if skills.enabled %}
```

```
{% if skills.exists %}
```

```
You have been awarded the following skill(s) for this achievement:
```

```
{% for onskill in skills %}
```

```
- {{ skill.title }} (check it at {{ skill.link }})
```

```
{% endif %}
```

```
{% endif %}
```

```
{% endif %}
```

Something like that
